

Daryl V. Storrs Artworks

Daryl V. Storrs received a B.A. from Middlebury College in 1979. From 1980-1982 she was assistant to Sabra Field in East Barnard, Vermont. In 1982, she enrolled as a graduate student at University of Massachusetts, Amherst, and graduated in 1984 with a MFA in Printmaking. In addition to her studies, Daryl taught figure drawing, woodcut, typography and monoprinting at Hampshire College.

Daryl V. Storrs has been accepted into national print shows such as Hunterdon National Print Exhibition, Colorprint USA and Boston Printmakers. She was a resident in printmaking at the MacDowell Colony in Peterborough, New Hampshire. She received two Vermont Council on the Arts grants to teach printmaking to students grades K-12.

In 1985 she started "Daryl V. Storrs Artworks Ltd.", wholesaling her lithographic jewelry and original prints to galleries and stores nationwide. Additionally, she travels to 8-10 retail art and craft fairs throughout the northeast each year. Most recently Daryl has been making pastel landscapes and multi-block woodcut prints.
